AMCIS is an annual conference of the Association for Information Systems (AIS), the leading professional society for IS academics. AMCIS conferences, held in North, Central, or South America, regularly attract academics from all over the world.

Your participation in AMCIS 2013 will ensure that your organization receives maximum exposure to more than 1,000 attendees, as well as the additional 4,000 AIS members in 97 countries.

AMCIS provides an excellent opportunity for your organization to reach this select group of IS academics, thought-leaders, and doctoral students. The attendees teach hundreds of thousands of students annually.

Please take a moment to review the opportunities to exhibit at AMCIS 2013 and let us know how we can help you reach your marketing goals and objectives.
